RESOLUTION

New Delhi, the 25th July 1959

No. 23(1)/57-Chem.II.—The Committee set up in January, 1958, by the Government of India to review the development of preserved fruits and vegetables industry in the country with the following terms of reference submitted its report in January, 1959:—

- (i) To review the steps so far taken to develop preserved fruits and vegetables industry in India on the basis of recommendations made by various bodies, like Planning Commission Tariff Commission, etc.
- (ii) To examine the present position of the industry in regard to installed capacity, production consumption, availability of raw materials and export of finished products.
- (iii) To assess the scope for further development of the industry in different regions of the country keeping in view the available facilities.
- (iv) To examine the extent and future scope for the indigenous production of different types of chemicals raw materials and machinery required for the fruit and vegetable preservation industry.
- (v) To make such recommendations as the Committee may consider necessary having regard to the objective of developing fruit and vegetable preservation industry

2. Its recommendations are as follows:—

- (1) The import of special type of tin-plate, estimated at 1,000 tons per annum should be continued till manufacture of cold reduced hot dipped tin-plate from suitable quality of steel is started at Rourkela
- (2) The advisability of Morabba and pickle industries continuing to use containers made from ordinary type of tin-plates as at present should be investigated by the Central Food Technological Institute, Mysore.
- (3) The manufacture of barrels from special woods should be investigated by the Forest Research Institute, Dehra Dun
- (4) The scope for the manufacture of pectin from apple and citrus waste should be explored.
- (5) Citric and acetic acid in substantial quantities should be produced within the country to enable the preserved fruits and vegetable industry to obtain its requirements indigenously at reasonable prices.
- (6) Excessive use of food colour in fruit and vegetable products should be avoided.
- (7) To explore export markets an official delegation having representatives of the industry should be deputed to a few selected countries. For achieving target of export fixed at 11,000 tons by 1960-61 a more vigorous drive should be undertaken by publicity of Indian products in foreign countries and participation in exhibitions and international fairs
- (8) The State Trading Corporation should contribute to the promotion of export of fruit and vegetable products, and take steps to explore and develop new markets abroad.
- (9) The industry voluntarily subject itself to compulsory quality checking on food products to be exported and compulsory standardisation should be adopted for exports.
- (10) Loan facilities to fruit and vegetable preservation industry should accelerate the development of the industry considerably. The possibility of operating a scheme to provide loan facilities directly from the Centre should be explored.
- (11) The implementation of schemes included in the Second Five-Year Plan, which have been delayed, should be effected in the Third Five-Year Plan.
- (12) Adequate provision should be made for technical training including training abroad during the Third Five-Year Plan.
- (13) Steps should be taken for development of refrigeration expeditiously in the Third Five-Year Plan
- (14) A coordinated programme of horticulture and fruit and vegetable preservation should be chalked out.

3. The Government accept recommendation Nos. (2), (3), (4), (6), (8), (9), (11), (12), (13), and (14) and will take steps to implement these as far as possible. Government have taken note of recommendation No. (1).

1. As regards recommendation No. (7) steps will be taken to push up exports in foreign countries by participation in exhibitions and international fairs and by other means of publicity. It is not considered desirable at this stage to send an official delegation abroad

5 As regards recommendation No. (10), while the suggestion that loan facilities would accelerate considerably the development of the industry is accepted; it is not considered practicable to operate the loan scheme directly by the Central Government

6. The attention of the industry is specially drawn to recommendation No. (5)

ORDER
